

Sign language and oral interpreters, VRI and other auxiliary aids and services are available free of charge to persons who are deaf or hard of hearing. These services will be provided to the client or client companion for the endurance of the treatment with Eagle Creek Counseling.